Ms. Moser,

The Company is fine proceeding without an opening and beginning its case-in-chief at the outset of the hearing, if that works for the Commission.

Thanks,
Michael Anzelmo

Dear Parties of Record,

As you know, the hearing in this Docket begins Monday, May 2nd at 10:00 a.m. Please advise if you have any preliminary matters that need to be addressed by the Commission before the hearing. If you intend to provide a brief opening statement, please let us know.

Additionally, if you are planning on introducing any cross examination exhibits, please email a (pdf) copy to Commission staff member Elise Wilson (Elise.Wilson@psc.sc.gov) by 9:45 a.m. Monday morning. Hard copies of the cross examination materials are also required, and must be clearly identifiable (and numbered) so that they can be located during the hearing. Please come prepared with twenty printed copies of each potential cross examination exhibit on Monday morning. They will be distributed to Commissioners, staff, counsel, and parties at the appropriate time.

Further, on behalf of the Court Reporter and for the clarity of the record, it is requested that when you present, discuss, question, or share an exhibit during this proceeding, you must state and identify the number of the exhibit. If you are cross examining a witness, you must state the exhibit number as you have pre-numbered the exhibit so that it can be distributed. To be clear, the copies provided to Ms. Wilson for the Commission (both electronic and hard copy) will not be reviewed or seen by the Commissioners or Commission attorneys unless and until you present them upon cross examination.

Thank you for your attention to these matters and for filling out the virtual media plan, even if you are planning on being at the Commission in person. I believe the WebEx link should be sent out soon for those of you who have a virtual witness. If you do not receive the link within the next hour, let us know.

If you have any other questions, please do not hesitate to ask. We look forward to seeing you all on Monday.

Sincerely,
Sandra
